Meals... and more

Since 1969, our vision of a community where more people are able to live independently in their own homes has not changed.

As the population ages, and hospital stays are shortened, the demand for our services is growing. The gap between our funding sources and the actual cost to deliver our programs is also increasing. Our fundraising efforts help to bridge that gap. By donating to Meals on Wheels London, you ensure that these growing service demands are met.

Everyday over 355 volunteers deliver more than a meal and transportation; they're also delivering a bit of hope, peace of mind and friendship, one smile at a time.
